

Road Safety Quiz

This can be included in 'Bump Birth & Beyond sessions

- | | | |
|--|---|---|
| 1. Babies 9-12 months (up to 13kg) should have a front facing child seat | Y | N |
| 2. It is illegal to use a rear facing seat in the front if your car has an airbag fitted on the passenger side | Y | N |
| 3. It is advisable to try and buy a second hand car seat to save money | Y | N |
| 4. It is not necessary to strap a young baby into a buggy as they can't wriggle or jump out | Y | N |
| 5. As long as I can see my older children whilst I am pushing the buggy they will be safe | Y | N |
| 6. It is ok to push my buggy into the road so that I can see if any traffic is coming | Y | N |
| 7. Do not push your buggy between parked cars | Y | N |
| 8. If there is no footpath it's ok to walk on either side of the road | Y | N |

Road Safety Quiz Answers

1. No. Babies from birth to 9-12 months (up to 13kg) should stay in a rear facing seat for as long as possible.
2. Yes. It is illegal unless you can turn the air bag off
3. No. If you don't know the full history of a second hand car seat, don't buy it.
4. No. Always check your child is strapped in securely before setting off. If you are using a car seat in your buggy make sure it is securely clipped in.
5. No. Seeing other children is not enough whilst pushing the buggy, make sure other children hold onto the buggy tightly and keep yourself between them and the traffic.
6. No. Never push your buggy into the road first, find a safe place to cross and try and use a designated crossing place (especially if you have older children with you, they will begin to look & note its significance)
7. Yes. Never cross between parked cars, use a designated crossing point or cross away from parked cars where possible.
8. No. When there is no footpath walk on the right side of the road so you see oncoming traffic and it sees you, keeping an eye out for vehicles reversing or entering driveways.