You did not look and listen for traffic.

You started to cross the road before you made sure the traffic had stopped.

You set off to get your ball when it rolled in the road.

You ran along the pavement near the kerb.

You and your friend pushed each other near the road.

You played with a ball on the pavement.

You held hands as you walked along.

You waited until you saw the green man showing on the pelican crossing.

You held hands as you crossed the road.

You kept well away from the kerb when walking.

You nearly crossed the road when the red man was showing on the pelican crossing.

You did not hold hands as you crossed the road.

You waited until you saw the green man showing on the pelican crossing.

You did not look for traffic.

You set off to get your ball when it rolled in the road.

You kept well away from the kerb when walking.

You nearly crossed the road when the green man was flashing at the pelican.

You started to cross the road when the green man was showing on the pelican.

You did not hold hands as you crossed the road.

You crossed the road at the pelican crossing.

You kept holding hands as you looked in the shop window.

You kept holding hands as you crossed the road.

You did not look and listen for traffic.

You nearly crossed the road when the red man was showing on the pelican.

You held hands as you crossed the road.

You kept looking and listening as you crossed the road.

You put your ball in a bag to carry to the park.

You rode your bike on the cycle path.

You played with a ball on the pavement.

You held hands as you walked along.

You waited until you saw the green man showing on the pelican crossing.

You held hands as you crossed the road.

You kept well away from the kerb when walking.

You nearly crossed the road when the red man was showing on the pelican.

You did not hold hands as you crossed the road.

You crossed the road at the pelican crossing.

You kept looking and listening as you crossed the road.

You put your ball in a bag to carry to the park.